New Additions to ABC Enforcement

The Kentucky ABC would like to welcome
Willie Skeens and Buck Adkins to the enforcement division of the department. Both individuals were sworn in during a January ceremony at the ABC
headquarters in Frankfort.

Willie Skeens is a 14 year veteran of law enforcement,
having served with the Lancaster Police Department, Garrard County Sheriff's Office, and most recently with Operation UNITE, a drug prevention task force unit in eastern Kentucky.

Buck Adkins comes to the ABC with fifteen years law enforcement experience, including tenures with the D.O.C.J.T. (Department of Criminal Justice Training), city and county enforcement in Montgomery County, and a stint with the arson investigation unit of the Kentucky State Police.

Did you know?

A restaurant patron may take home a partially consumed bottle of wine from the premises under the following circumstances: (KRS 243.115, 243.117)

1. The wine is ordered with a meal.
2. The bottle is securely resealed by the restaurant licensee and bagged.
3. Licensee provides a dated sales receipt of the wine and dinner purchase.
4. Customer secures the bagged wine in a locked glove box, trunk, or other area that is not a passenger area.

May I see your ID Please?

The Kentucky ABC recommends that you check one of the following forms of identification in your effort to prevent underage sales:

- State Issued Drivers License

- State Issued Identification Card

- Permanent Residency Card

- Military Identification Card

- Passport

All of these documents are government issued, contain a picture of the bearer and will have date of birth and expiration date printed on them.

Tips/strategies to prevent underage sales

- Ask for a valid ID from any customer who looks to be 30 years of age or younger.

- Do NOT touch their wallet. Make them take out the I.D.

- Check to make sure the picture on the ID matches the person.

- Check the laminate for imperfections, bumps, rough edges, breaks, etc. Does the card feel thicker than other ID cards you've checked? Is it too flimsy?

- Check the expiration date. If it is expired, it is NOT a valid ID.

- Further questions you can ask to verify or validate their ID information:
  1. What is your zip code?
  2. What year did you graduate high school?
  3. What is your middle name?
  4. What is your astrological sign?
  5. What year did you take your drivers license exam?

- When in doubt, ask for a second form of ID or simply REFUSE to serve the customer in question.
